1. Local policy for educational support

Our local policy for the secondary school is based on the general document for educational support for all the European schools:

- “Policy on the Provision of Educational Support in the European Schools- 2012-05-D-14-en-10”
- “Provision of Educational Support in the European Schools- Procedural document 2012-05-D-15-en-12”.

These documents are updated and available in English, French and German in the web site: <https://www.eursc.eu/en/European-Schools/studies/educational-support>

1.1. Concept

Educational support is a strategy across the European School system to set up educational support when and where there is a real need for it. Indeed, the provision of educational support is foreseen for learning difficulties deemed remediable with appropriate teaching measures. Educational support is designed to make the entire curriculum accessible to pupils experiencing difficulties in one or other area of learning and who, despite internal differentiation in class and their own best efforts, fail to reach the standard required by the European Schools' curriculum.

1.2. Differentiated teaching

Differentiation forms the basis of all good and effective teaching. It is essential, not only for pupils requiring support, but for all. Differentiation in order to meet the needs of all pupils is the responsibility of every teacher working in the ES and should take place in the classroom. Differentiated teaching ensures that in planning and delivering lessons teachers are aware of and take account of the different learning styles and needs of individual pupils.

1.3. Who is it for?

- pupils with different learning styles
- pupils studying in a language section different from their mother tongue
- pupils arriving late in the system with gaps in their knowledge or skills
- pupils with a mild learning difficulty
- pupils with a diagnosed special educational need
- gifted and talented pupils

1.4. Educational Support

Where normal differentiation in the classroom is not sufficient, the European Schools provide a range of support structures. Support is flexible and varies as a pupil develops and his/her needs change.

These support measures result in general, moderate or intensive support, type A, B and/or special arrangements.

1.4.1. Educational Support Structures

Educational Support Structures
Special Arrangements		General	Moderate	Intensive
				A	B
	Short-term	X	X	X	X
	Medium-term		X	X
	Long-term			X

- General Support concerns any pupil who may experience difficulties in a particular aspect of a subject or who may need to 'catch up' in a given subject, for example, due to late arrival in the school or illness or because he/she is not studying in his/her mother tongue. Pupils may also need additional help with acquiring effective learning strategies or study skills.
- Moderate Support is an extension of General Support and is provided for pupils with a mild learning difficulty or in need of more targeted support. This could be appropriate for pupils who may be experiencing considerable difficulty in accessing the curriculum due to, for example, language issues, concentration problems or other reasons. It is provided for a longer period than General Support.

- Intensive Support is provided to pupils showing special educational needs according to the following descriptions

A. This Intensive Support type A (ISA) is provided on the basis of a medical/psychological/psycho-educational and/or multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) produced by an expert, justifying the pupil's special individual needs and including the signing of an agreement between the Director and the parents. Intensive Support is provided for pupils with special educational needs such as learning, emotional, behavioural or physical needs (see also the document 'Provision of Educational support in the European Schools – Procedural document' (2012-05-D-15)).

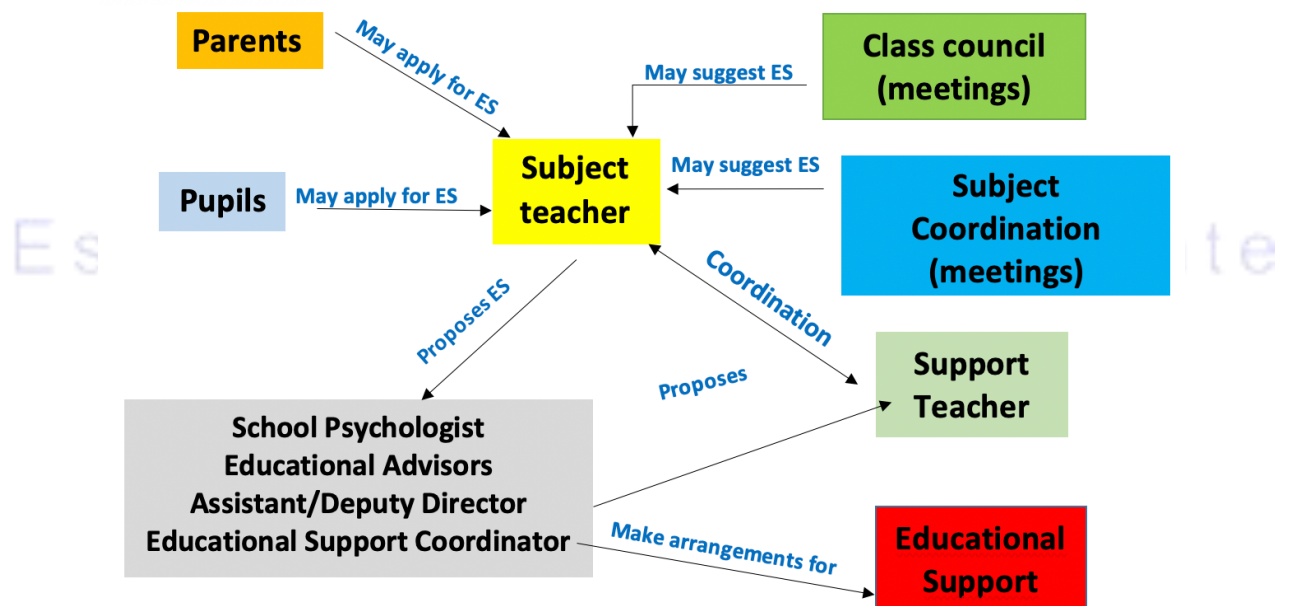

The provision of Intensive Support is recommended to the Director by the Support Advisory Group. Pupils can follow the standard or modified curriculum. In the latter situation, the pupil accompanies his/her class with progression but without promotion to the next class and as long as this can be shown to be in the best interest of the pupil's social and academic development.

- B. This Intensive Support type B (ISB) is provided in exceptional circumstances, and on a short-term basis only, and a Director may decide to provide Intensive Support B for a pupil without special educational needs, for example, in the form of intensive language support for a pupil who is unable to access the standard curriculum.

1.4.2. Selection of pupils for Educational Support

The final class councils can propose pupils to follow educational support lessons for the next school year. Furthermore, at the beginning of the school year, teachers can propose that certain pupils follow educational support lessons. (These are normally long-term needs or medium term). For the students that are experiencing serious difficulties it is possible to activate support courses during the school year. This can also happen at any moment when a specific learning difficulty is detected. (These are normally short-term needs)

Pupils themselves and parents may also discuss with the teachers the necessity of joining educational support lessons, as it can be seen in the following figure:

1.4.3. Gifted and talented students

A gifted and talented student is a pupil of high ability in some or all areas, who may nevertheless also require special learning conditions to fulfil their educational potential.

The procedure for supporting these students is:

1. Identify the students with high abilities in some or all areas by the teachers or by the parents.
2. Meeting with the teachers, parents and the school psychologist to collect the information.
3. In case of clear evidence of high abilities, request the parents for an external medical/ psychological and/or a multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) to evaluate the student and his/her needs.
4. Once the report is given to the Support Coordinator, arrange a meeting with the teachers, the Deputy Head and the school psychologist to study the measures the school could offer according to the report.
5. The measures could be:
 - i. Level I: Adapted curriculum to help the student to develop his/her maximum capabilities. (without or with support classes)
 - ii. Level II: When the measures in Level I are not enough, the direct promotion to the year above could be considered.

1.4.4. Special arrangements

The European Schools offer special arrangements. These arrangements are listed and made available to pupils during examinations, tests and other forms of assessment to allow the pupil to fulfil his/her potential in the fairest possible way. The list of special arrangements is available in the document 'Provision of Educational support in the European Schools – Procedural document' (2012-05-D-15).

Special arrangements are authorised when they are clearly related to the pupils' diagnosed need(s) by means of a medical/psychological/psycho-educational and/or multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) justifying these special arrangements.

The implementation of special arrangements is decided on an individual basis by the school Management (up to and including S5) following discussion with parents and teachers.

In S6 and S7, certain special arrangements can be directly authorised by the Director, other arrangements require the approval of the Board of Inspectors for the secondary cycle, according to the list of both categories of special arrangements as set out in the document "Provision of Educational Support in the European Schools - Procedural document" \(2012-05-D-15-en-12\).

If the evaluation conditions during the Pre-Baccalaureate and Baccalaureate examinations present a risk to disadvantage the candidate in terms of his/her performance – especially if he/she shows special educational needs – by preventing him/her from demonstrating the level at which he/she has acquired the required competences, special arrangements may be requested and authorised for the written and oral examinations. These special arrangements are not intended to compensate for any lack of knowledge or skills whatsoever.

Procedure for the request of Special Arrangements in years S6 and S7

Normally special arrangements in years S6 and S7 will be allowed only when similar arrangements have been used in a previous year or previous years. This does not necessarily apply to newly enrolled pupils in S6.

A written request for special arrangements in S6 and S7 will be made to the support coordinator by either a teacher or teachers or by the pupil's legal representatives.

The application must state precisely on which specialist's diagnosis the request is based. The application must also state precisely which special arrangements are being requested. An updated – dating back not more than two years – medical/ psychological and/or a multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) explaining the need for special arrangements is required. A pupil's legal representative must provide the relevant documents.

Each application for special arrangements will be treated on its own merit.

DEADLINE: Requests for special arrangements for the Baccalaureate must be made by 15th October of the year preceding entry into the Baccalaureate cycle, i.e. S5.

Solely in exceptional situations which are unforeseeable and duly attested (serious illness, accident, newly enrolled pupils, etc.) the request for the granting of special arrangements may be submitted after the deadline indicated above. The request must be accompanied by full documentation setting out the grounds on which it is based.

The documents for requesting "special arrangements for the European Baccalaureate cycle" are available in the School web site "Educational Support":

- Template for requesting special arrangements for the European Baccalaureate cycle (2019-09-D-12-en-4)
- Limited authorisation to release confidential information

1.5. Priorities

Educational support applies to all subjects, but priority is given to:

- Years 1-3
- Languages & scientific subjects
- Compulsory subjects rather than optional subjects
- Pupils in large groups
- Possibility of forming a group (around 3 or more)

1.6. Limitations

- Budget for Educational Support.
- The school timetable. Sometimes ES will have to be organised after school hours or on Wednesday afternoons
- Timetable of pupils.
- Timetable of Support teachers. It is not always possible to find an appropriate teacher (language, qualifications) and it is not economically viable to employ a teacher for a single lesson
- Availability of Support teachers. In principle, we prefer that the subject teacher is not at the same time educational support teacher of the same pupil. That way we encourage team teaching and pupils can also benefit from different teaching styles.
- Parental support. Educational support can be withdrawn if parents reject the support in writing

1.7. Objectives

- Help the pupils to overcome shortcomings in a specific subject and give them a more solid foundation in skills and knowledge
- Help the pupils to improve the results in the concerned subjects so that their promotion to the following school year will not be jeopardized.
- Foster learner autonomy through enhancing the pupils' study skills applied to a specific subject.
- Increase teacher cooperation.
- Introduce the use of virtual learning platforms to help supporting the pupils' learning
- Keep parents regularly informed about the pupils' progress.

2. Specific language learning difficulties

The secondary school has the possibility of giving support to those pupils whose mother tongue or previous language of instruction does not coincide with the section they are enrolled in.

The support can be given in two directions, either to maintain their mother tongue or to facilitate their integration in the new L1 and/or L2.

L2 This programme is aimed at supporting pupils that are weak in L2, or never had that L2 before arriving at the school. It can consist of very intense support during a shorter period of time.

3. Local organisation of educational support

3.1. Role and task of the Educational support coordinator

- Carry out a preliminary expected needs analysis for the following school year by gathering information from the end of the school year reports of class councils.
- Follow the proposals of pupils for educational support during the school year together with the Pedagogic Advisers and Deputy Head.
- Contact and collaborate on a regular basis with Pedagogic Advisers, class teachers, subject coordinators and subject teachers.
- Facilitate Educational support and subject teacher collaboration
- Keep himself informed about the progress of pupils receiving Educational support to ensure maximal support or withdrawal of pupils from Educational support lessons where support is no longer needed
- Disseminate information regarding materials, resources and in-service training.
- Produce an end of the school year report in which the Educational support actions are evaluated and trends across language sections, years and subjects are shown.
- Collaborate with the Deputy Head in other required tasks.
- Update and make available lists of pupils receiving educational support of various types through the language sections and different year groups, through entering data in the SMS (or alternative system), bearing in mind the necessity for ensuring confidentiality.
- Attend European Schools' Support working group meetings, initiated and organized by the Support inspectors.

3.2. Roles of the educational support teacher and the subject teacher

The educational support teacher should be in constant communication with the subject teacher in order to help the pupil catch up in the areas in which he/she shows weaknesses. In this sense, the support teacher must carry out continuous observation and assessment of the pupils.

The support teacher should give feedback to the subject teacher, class teacher, educational support coordinator and parents about the evolution of the pupil. Furthermore, the support teacher:

- will use appropriate differentiated teaching methods
- will undertake detailed observation and assessment
- will decide on the most appropriate teaching strategies for the pupil, in consultation with the class or subject teacher and any other professionals working with the pupil
- will write a GLP for the group receiving General Support and an ILP for each pupil receiving Intensive or moderate support in cooperation with the class/subject teacher
- will liaise and cooperate with class or subject teachers and the other members of the team during the learning process

- will evaluate the pupil's progress
- will keep records of achievement in order to have accessible information when needed
- will liaise with parents about the child's progress and needs
- will participate in the pupil's class councils.

Sometimes parents may decide to reinforce the educational support offered by the school by hiring a private tutor. We strongly recommend that the school is consulted before making that decision. This sort of supported maybe counterproductive if the private tutor is not familiar with the European School syllabi, our methodological approach or if the pupil is not encouraged to develop his independence and autonomy. We encourage the support teachers to be in contact with private tutors.

3.3. Role of the Support Assistant

The Support assistant is allocated pupils with specific learning difficulties, receiving intensive educational support. This is specific help, arranged in the advisory group meeting when the need for intensive support is agreed, to include one-to-one help in the classroom, assistance and supervision in sport and other practical lessons, such as art and music, and in the dining room. Some pupils will need assistance in orientating themselves in the school building, organising their schoolbags and personal possessions.

Support assistant have an important role in supporting pupils and in the work done by the teachers. The assistant's role includes good communication skills, flexibility, patience, self-initiative and discretion. If, for some reason, an assistant is not present, the pupil will be integrated into the class.

3.4. Role of the students

Students receiving General and Moderate Support will be encouraged to discuss their needs and the type of support. Pupils receiving Intensive Support will be consulted about the type of support needed, before it is put in place. As far as possible the pupil's views will be taken into account.

3.5. Role of the Parents

Parents will play an active role in the contacts with their child's teachers. Parents will make any relevant information available to the school on admission or during the school year. The parents may ask during the course to the subject teacher educational support classes for their sons and daughters. In case the subject teacher considers necessary this support he/she will inform the educational coordinator and the Deputy Director about that request. If the request is for intensive support they must provide medical/psychological/psycho-educational and/or multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) and it should be updating every two years.

The parents may also request for Special Arrangements (it must be clearly related to the pupils' diagnosed need(s) by means of a medical/psychological/psycho-educational and/or multidisciplinary report (view Annex II) justifying these special arrangements.

Requests for special arrangements for the Baccaureate must be made by 15th October of the year preceding entry into the Baccaureate cycle, i.e. S5.

When parents decide to refuse, the educational support proposed by the school they will inform the school of the decision in writing.

3.6. Role of the Support Advisory Group

The Support Advisory Group is a Multi-professional group at the school's level which assesses the requests and documentation for Intensive Support and gives its advice to the Director for decision-making; the composition of the group is presented in Annex 1.

Procedure for admission in Intensive Support

- 1) The support coordinator contacts the pupil's legal representatives and requests documentation so that a meeting of the Support Advisory Group can be held
- 2) Pupil's legal representatives will provide the Support Advisory Group with a medical/psychological/psycho-educational/multidisciplinary report.
- 3) In the case of a pupil who may require Intensive Support A, the Director will decide to convene a meeting of the Support Advisory Group to consider whether the school is able to meet the child's needs
- 4) All the Director's decisions about admission into Intensive Support will be made taking into account the proposals of the Support Advisory Group.
- 5) The Support Advisory Group will be informed of the conclusions of medical/psychological/psycho-educational/multidisciplinary reports.
- 6) This documentation must be regularly updated and not be more than two years old. In case of permanent and unchanging disability and when the Support Advisory Group agrees, no retesting other than regular updates will be required.
- 7) When the school cannot provide an appropriate education for a child it can declare itself unable to meet the child's needs.
- 8) In such cases, the Director takes the final decision, taking the Support Advisory Group's opinion into account.

Advisory Group Meetings

- 1) The support coordinator arranges the meetings.
- 2) If necessary, a meeting of the Support Advisory Group, in either plenary or restricted session, may be held at any point during the school year to evaluate and/or amend the Intensive Support Agreement.
- 3) The Support Advisory Group meeting is held to discuss how best to meet the pupil's needs and to advise the Director on the arrangements to be put in place.
- 4) The Support Advisory Group meeting is chaired by either the Director or his/her delegate.
- 5) The support coordinator prepares the minutes of the Support Advisory Group meeting and the Intensive Support Agreement for signing by the Director and the pupil's legal representatives.
- 6) The secondary support coordinator and the future secondary class teacher attend the Support Advisory Group meetings for the P5 classes and ensure that all relevant information is passed on to all secondary class/subject teachers at the beginning of the school year.

Intensive Support Agreement is a formal, signed agreement between the school and the pupil's legal representative which requires the opinion of the Support Advisory Group on special support measures which may require an additional budget.

Procedure for filling in the Intensive Support Agreement

- 1) Following the signing of the Intensive Support Agreement the support coordinator organises the Intensive Support and any other arrangements required.
- 2) Individual Learning Plan: any pupil receiving Intensive support in a European School must have an ILP. This document, written by the support teacher in collaboration with the class/subject teacher includes specific learning objectives, appropriate teaching methods and measurable targets, set within a given time-frame.
- 3) An ILP is reviewed annually and approved by the Support Advisory Group (Intensive Support: A)
- 4) An ILP is written by the support teacher(s) in cooperation with the subject/class teacher and/or support coordinator.
- 5) The Intensive Support Agreement is valid for one school year only and a full Support Advisory Group meeting should be held each year to begin, renew or terminate Intensive Support.

3.7. Duration and general characteristics of the lessons

In principle, most of the courses are planned as all year round courses (long-term or medium-term needs) at the beginning of the school year and are subject based. However, they may be closed due to an early and successful remediation. However, some pupils may be excluded from ES if they do not show interest, miss lessons with no justification or do not take responsibility for their own learning, showing no effort or no motivation at all.

Also some pupils can be proposed for a few lessons clinics (short-term needs). These are specific educational support actions focusing on a clearly defined problem, on the revision of some specific contents, or a test, etc.

Study skills or “learning to learn” strategies are embedded in the educational support lessons and subject related. 1st year pupils also receive around specific on “learning to learn” taught by the L1 teachers.

New pupils arriving at the school without a language section can also benefit from special arrangements. When we encounter very serious cases where the new L1 or/and L2 is a barrier to access other lessons, then we need to organise a language immersion for a few months using existing L1 and L2 lessons from another year levels. This we call an adapted timetable and it is normally complemented with tuition in small ES groups or with one to one lessons. Later on, the pupils are reintegrated in their normal lessons and normally keep their support lessons as well.

3.8. Progress, assessment and promotion

The Progress, assessment and promotion is regulated by the “General Rules of the European Schools (2014-03-D-14-en-8)” :

- Art. 59 Assessment
- Art, 60 1. School reports
 2. Detailed arrangements.

In addition to what is regulated in this article, in the reports for the students with educational support the support teacher shall give an evaluation in the form of a comment but not a numerical assessment in the report

- Art 61 Promotion to the year above
 - A. Competence
 - B. Criteria taken in account

For the students with educational support are relevant the following points:

4. In fully justified special cases, notably prolonged absence because of illness, and where the pupil's interest so demands, the Class Council may waive the above rules in order to promote a pupil. Such a derogation shall be authorised only where, in view of the precise circumstances characterising it and differentiating it from other cases, a given situation requires promotion to be granted notwithstanding unsatisfactory results, in so far as it is accepted that the pupil will be able to continue his/her schooling successfully in the year above. The decision, and the reasons justifying promotion, must then be recorded in detail in the minutes of the Class Council's meeting.
 5. A pupil shall not be allowed to repeat the same year in the secondary cycle twice. In special cases, the Class Council may grant an exception to this rule. Before taking a decision, the Class Council will hear the opinion of the pupil's legal representatives.
 6. As laid down in the provision of Educational Support in the European Schools, the cases of pupils with special educational needs with an adapted curriculum shall be considered with reference to the criteria set out in the agreement; the Support Advisory Group shall propose arrangements for progress and for the continuation of schooling to the Class Council. The pupil's legal representatives will receive an achievement certificate giving details of the progress made.
- C. Guidelines for the promotion of pupils in secondary years 1, 2 and 3
 - D. Guidelines for the promotion of pupils in secondary years 4, 5 and 6
 - E. E-Guidelines for distance learning

“At the school's request, pupils may follow courses using distance learning methods, in accordance with the arrangements determined by the Board of Inspectors. The pupils concerned will then follow a syllabus identical with the one taught in 'traditional' classes. Examinations and assessment shall be organised in accordance with the rules and regulations in forc e”.

- Art. 62 Appeals against decisions on repeating a year

3.9. Documents for Educational Support

According for the regulations the following documents have to be filled in:

- Intensive Support Agreement:
 - The Intensive Support Agreement is a formal, signed agreement between the school and the pupil's legal representative which requires the opinion of the Support Advisory Group on special support measures which may require an additional budget
 - Filled in by the Educational Support Coordinator in collaboration with the Advisory Group

- Individual Learning Plan for Moderate Support:
 - Any pupil receiving Moderate support in a European School must have an ILP. This document, written by the support teacher in collaboration with the class/subject teacher includes specific learning objectives, appropriate teaching methods and measurable targets, set within a given time-frame.
 - The educational support coordinator creates and share (in OneDrive Office365) the templates with the teachers involved in each Support Course (Class Teachers, Support Teachers and Subject teachers of the support courses)
 - The Subject and Support teachers are required to fill in the ILP.

 - The educational support coordinator creates and share (in OneDrive Office365) the templates with the teachers involved in each Support Course (Support Teachers and Subject teachers of the support courses)
 - The Subject and Support teachers are required to fill in the ILP.

3.10. Cooperation with local and/or national or regional or community support services, associations and schools in the area of educational support

The European School Alicante is exploring ways for strengthening the cooperation with national resources centers, vocational and professional schools, associations (e.g. ONCE y AISPANIA). There is also a tripartite agreement with clinical professionals. There is an extraordinary connection between the school, City Hall and universities which share expertise and provide support to European School Alicante.

3.11. Procedure to enable transfer to schools outside the system of the European Schools

The European School Alicante works together with the students, their families and the school or educational system that will receive the student. The European School Alicante is committed to strengthen further the cooperation between the School and the hosting Member State/Municipality and the local schools, providing information, certificates of attendance and school reports and by organize regular meetings with the stakeholders. Concerning the leaving certificate for students with modified curriculum who are not promoted but progressed, the European School Alicante tries to find a curriculum based on the objective to prepare him/her for a smooth transition for a different educational response. The experience and good practice show that our students easily adjust to their new school and/or pass the exams needed to enroll on a new educational solution.
